Question Sheet

Player copy • Write your answers. The small Q references match the article.

01 Q2 Supreme II had a sweater. What piece of eye protection completed this turkey's aviator look?

02 Q5 What did handlers put under Supreme III's traveling cage to make a bumpy ride gentler?

03 Q9 Which dairy ingredient in Mama Stamberg's relish sounds as though it woke up in a bad mood?

04 Q13 What unusual home did Tofurky founder Seth Tibbott build during the company's early years?

05 Q14 In 2013 the national turkey pair sounded like movie concessions. What went with Popcorn?

06 Q15 Which 2012 official turkey name rhymed with its partner Gobbler and sounded like dessert?

07 Q18 Which popcorn shape looks round enough to roll into a meeting with the mushrooms?

08 Q22 Can a hen sometimes strut and fan her tail, or is the runway reserved strictly for toms?

Matching Answer Key

Host copy • Match each number to the player sheet before awarding points.

01 Goggles.
Q2 The account also gives him an aviation helmet. A human pilot might have had to look twice at that particular passenger.

02 Springs.
Q5 The specially arranged cage could absorb some of the shaking. First-class poultry travel evidently required attention to the suspension.

03 Sour cream.
Q9 The adjective supplies the joke, but the food is a real ingredient. It helps give the relish its distinctive appearance.

04 A treehouse.
Q13 The company dates this adventure to its early Oregon years. This is one Thanksgiving food business with a literal branch office joke.

05 Caramel.
Q14 These Minnesota turkey names describe a snack when said together. The joke works because the birds really were named that way.

06 Cobbler.
Q15 The pair came from Virginia. A reader can stretch out the last syllable to help the room hear the rhyme.

07 Mushroom popcorn.
Q18 The round center and relatively sturdy structure make it useful for coatings. The name describes its shape, not a fungus in the snack.

08 A hen can strut, too.
Q22 The Fish and Wildlife Service points out the exception. The familiar male display does not give males a monopoly on strutting.

Quick Questions and Answers

Read a question aloud, pause for guesses, then share the printed answer.

01 Q1 In 1921, did White House-bound turkey Supreme II start his big trip on a train or in an airplane?

Answer: In an airplane.

02 Q3 When an airsick Supreme II abandoned flying, what carried him the rest of the way to Washington?

Answer: A train.

03 Q8 What color is the famous relish when the cranberries and sour cream have finished their meeting?

Answer: Bright pink.

04 Q11 Before the green bean casserole was famous, its short name ended with what word: Bake or Blockbuster?

Answer: Bake.

05 Q17 In 2008 the turkey names could both have finished the phrase “a slice of ___ pie.” Name the pair.

Answer: Pecan and Pumpkin.

06 Q23 On a wild turkey, which body part puts on the color show when blood vessels expand and contract?

Answer: The bare head.

Cut-Out Trivia Cards

Cut on dashed borders. Fold each answer strip back before passing the cards.

CARD 01 / ARTICLE Q10

What vegetable joins the berries in the grinder in the Stamberg family relish?

FOLD BACK / ANSWER

An onion.

CARD 02 / ARTICLE Q16

In 2016, which partner name made Tot sound like part of a potato order?

FOLD BACK / ANSWER

Tater.

CARD 03 / ARTICLE Q19

A popped kernel with wide, irregular wings might audition as which insect?

FOLD BACK / ANSWER

A butterfly.

CARD 04 / ARTICLE Q21

Can a wild turkey make a purring sound, or would that require borrowing a cat?

FOLD BACK / ANSWER

It can purr.