01 His word.
Q8 The people who were near death are called to recount what happened with joy, joining a rescue story to an expression of thanks.

02 Sailors or seafarers.
Q9 The setting shifts to ships and dangerous water. The invitation to thanksgiving follows a vivid account of danger giving way to calm.

03 Ten.
Q11 The account begins with a group calling out. Later the focus narrows to one individual and the particular choice he makes.

04 The priests.
Q12 Luke says that the change in their condition happens as they go. The instructions and their response precede the return of one man.

05 He is a Samaritan.
Q14 The narrator places this detail immediately after the man gives thanks. Jesus then draws attention to the fact that a foreigner returned.

06 At Jesus' feet.
Q15 The narrative describes a physical gesture as well as spoken praise, making the return an action that other people could see.

07 Twelve.
Q21 The number describes what remains after the meal. It differs from the number of loaves the boy had at the start.

08 The peace of God.
Q23 Read the verse together with the instruction about prayer just before it. The promised peace concerns the people bringing their requests.
