01 Q10 Dell Curry.
His team finished third after losing to Michigan by one in the semifinal. The tournament's most valuable player did not have to play in the final.

02 Q11 Eight.
An expanded field meant an additional round beyond the semifinal and final that players had needed to win the original tournament.

03 Q12 Vanderbilt.
Vanderbilt scored 87 against New Mexico's 71. Its Will Perdue was also named most valuable player at that edition.

04 Q17 UMass Lowell.
Brown and UMass Lowell played to a 5–5 tie through overtime. The shootout then determined who took the tournament trophy.

05 Q18 Dylan Zink.
The recap identifies Zink as the shootout scorer. A different player, C.J. Smith, had supplied the late equalizer to send the game to overtime.

06 Q21 Vito the Pug.
NBC televised the competition after the Thanksgiving parade. Use the name or the name and breed when identifying the specific winner.

07 Q22 The Toy Group.
A group win advanced him to the final against the other group winners. Breed judging alone did not give him the overall title.

08 Q24 Oaks.
The venue was the Greater Philadelphia Expo Center. The word Philadelphia in the venue name can distract a player from the community named in the report.
