01 Q1

An orchard.

Think about visiting a place with rows of trees where a farmer grows apples. That is an apple orchard.

02 Q3

Bees.

A bee can visit one flower and then another. It carries some of the pollen along on its trip.

03 Q7

The core.

If an adult cuts an apple in half, look in the center. The seeds sit in the core.

04 Q8

The flesh.

The word describes the part you bite into. It is inside the peel and around the core.

05 Q15

A jack-o'-lantern.

The same kind of plant can supply a decoration one month and food for a fall meal another month.

06 Q17

A turkey.

A male turkey can make this sound to call attention to himself. Try saying the answer before trying the sound.

07 Q21

Feathers.

A turkey is a bird. Its feathers cover its body, and some of them form its big tail.

08 Q22

The mother turkey, or hen.

She stays with the eggs in the nest. The chicks begin looking for food very soon after hatching.
